Dangerous Use of Strong Purgatives.

Most pills and purgatives which act quickly upon the bowels, irritate and often destroy the mucous coats of the stomach and bowels. Indeed, their cathartic action is directly caused by the irritation of the bowels, which they produce. Their action should be soothing and stimulating instead of irritating. A continued use of such remedies produces chronic inflammation of the stomach and bowels. This often ends in dangerous disease. The use of the genuine imported Carlsbad Sprudel Salt is highly recommended as an aperient, laxative and diuretic, because its action is due solely to its solvent and stimulating properties. It soothes and allays inflammation, and is therefore much preferable to all strong purgatives.

Beware of imitations. Dr. Toboldt's lecture on Carlsbad Sprudel Salt and pamphlets mailed free. Eisner & Mendelson Co., sole agents, 152 Franklin street, New York.

fre. Bundschuk Arrested for Cruelty to Her Stepdaughter.

Dora Bundschuk, 35 years old, of 948 Columbus avenue was paroled in custody of her law-yer by Justice Welde in the Harlem Police Court yesterday, and will be examined to-day on a charge of maitreating her stepdaughter. Kate Bundschuk, aged 12 years. The girl's father works in Lion Brewery.

The child was led into court yesterday morning by Agent King of the Gerry society. She was unable to stand erect. She said her condition was due to a beating at the hands of her stepmother last Thursday.

"Papa had gone to work when I got up Thursday, and there was no breakfast ready. I asked mamma to get breakfast for me, so that I could go to school. She was annry because I was afraid of being late, and she grabbed me and jammed me up against the wall. Then she struck me two or three times in the back with her fist, and hurt me awfully." the child with her fist, and hurt me awfully." the child said.

Mrs. Bundschuk denied the girl's story. She said she was obliged to punish the child at times because she was given to stealing pennies and was disobedient, but that she never punished her to excess.

On Thursday, after the slieged beating, the child escaped from the house and went to the readence of Mrs. Kerschmauer at 70 West 107th street, where she remained a day or two. She has since been stopping with her aunt. Mrs. Ulsky, in 110th street, near the Boulevard.

SWEENT'S HOTEL IN TROUBLE. Judgments Against Its Proprietors and Foreclosure Proceedings Begun.

The Washington Life Insurance Company has begun proceedings against Charles D., Daniel S., and John H. Sweeny, who compose the firm of Daniel Sweeny's Sons, proprietors of Sweeny's Hotel on Park row and Duane street, to foreclose a mortgage on the hotel property for $115,000, made by the Messrs. Sweeny on May 16, 1894, for non-payment of interest, due on March I, amounting to $2.875.

Deputy Sheriff Butler has advertised the sale of the right, title, and interest of Charles D. Sweeny in the hotel property to take place on May 14 under an execution for $2.440 against him in favor of H. H. Hamaker. The firm has been reported short of ready cash for a long time past, but has heretofore managed to settle most of the claims against it.

E. Mulligan obtained a judgment against the Sweenyson Feb. 25 for $1.780.

KILBREIH GOES TO WASHINGTON

The Collector of the Port will Try to Got Needed Improvements for New York. Collector Kilbreth went to Washington yes erday on matters connected with the New York Custom House and the commerce of the port. The Collector is in favor of allowing the steamship companies to run their vessels up to the wharves at any time day or night. He considers it a hardship and a needless expense for steam-ships to be detained at Quarantine after the sundown gun. He wants great freedom for the commerce of the port. The Secretary of the Treasury, Mr. Carlisle, and the Assistant Secre-propositions of the Collector, but there is a difference as to details. For instance, some of the Washington folks want the steamship companies to pay the expense of additional customs napectors, and also to pay for additional work on the part of the old inspectors. The Collector does not favor these propositions. He departed with a bundle of statistics and ther documents going to show that 75 per cent.

tary, Mr. Hamlin, are in accord with the main

He departed with a bundle of statistics and other documents going to show that 75 per cent. of the customs revenue is collected at this port, and that every effort should be made to please those who contribute this great percentage of the revenue.

Collector Kilbreth and Secretary Carlisle and Mr. Hamin are also in accord as to the demahd for a new Custom House. The Collector's figures concerning the amount of the revenue collected at this port will also do service while he is in Washington in the effort to enlist the interest of the Administration in the demand for a new Custom House. The Secretary and Mr. Hamiln on their last visit went through the shabby old building whose floors and corridors have been for a year past propped up with timbers, and they pronounced the condition of the building positively disgraceful. The appropriations for the New York Eustom House have always been of the most algardly description. For years elevators have been promised. At hast an appropriation for them was filened from the Chicago Custom House by the Hon. Timothy Justinian Campbell. Mr. Campbell doesn't hesitate to say that in this matter he "skinned Chicago," The elevators were to have been in operation on Monday. There is no sign of them yet. It has been so in many other matters. All the Collectors within the last ten years have had to beg for necessaries, and to be content with the most meagre appropriations. They have repeatedly complained that the New York State Congressmen have been overridden by their Western colleagues when anything looking to the improvement of New York has come up in Congress.

The Collector while in Washington will also make a stand for better revenue cutters. The Grant at one time was stationed in these waters. So was the Perry. But months ago they were sent to Facilic waters, leaving New York Hay to be guarded by the Hudson and the Chandler, two old tubs that have been ilable to flounder at any time with the last ten years. The Washington, another cutter, did sink at her pier three years ago. T

WILL SHE JOIN CANADA?

The Newfoundland and Canadian Delegates Will Talk It Over. MONTREAL, April 3.-The Newfoundland con ederation delegation, which consists of R. ond, Colonial Secretary: George H. Emerson, W. H. Horwood, and E. P. Morles, were at the Windsor Hotel yesterday.

"Our deputation includes a majority of the Newfoundland Government-four out of six," said Mr. Emerson, "and we are prepared to go exhaustively into the question of confederation with the Dominion. We can hardly say whether we are favorable or not. At present the Government does not stand committed to confederation, but it is in earnest in its efforts to find out what the most likely terms are. We really have no offers to make.

"The people in the States have been very kind to us, and the question of annexation to the States has been talked of, but to say that any society were very much interested in getting Dr. Whitehead before the Grand Jury. It was on the testimony of the Doctor before the Lexow Committee that Detective Sergeant William E. Frink and Police Sergeant William E. Frink and Police Sergeant William E. Frink and Police Sergeant William C. The testimony of Dr. Whitehead also implicated Police Justice Joseph Koch. Lawyer Moss said that the society had been endenvoring to have Dr. Whitehead appear before the Grand Jury for some time, but had been prevented by the District Attorney. He was asked if he meant Col. Fellows, and he replied in an equivocal manner. When this statement was receated to Col. Fellows afterward, he said:

"If Mr. Moss said that I prevented Whitehead going before the Grand Jury, he said what was absolutely false, and he knew it when he made the statement."

The case of Dr. Whitehead was called for trial yesterday before Judge Fitzgeraid, in Part II. of the General Sessions. Col. Fellows told the Judge that he had consented to allow the case to go over until after the police officials indicted by his testimony had been tried. Dr. Whitehead immediately went before the Grand Jury.

IN THE DIVORCE COURTS. Mixed Up Case in Which Stephen B, Pisk and His Wife Appear,

Ex-Mayor A. Oakey Hall made a motion be fore Judge Gildersleeve in the Superior Court in behalf of his client, Stephen B. Fisk, to have the default opened in the case of annulment of marriage which he had brought against his wife, Mary Frances Fisk. Fisk brought the action for the annulment of the marriage last fall, alleging that his wife had fraudulently concealed from him her status as a bride. He got his decree on Oct. 8, 1894, his wife making no defence. Soon after this she moved to open her default, claiming that she had received no notice of the action, although her husband knew where she was all the time, and that he had got his decree through false affidavits. The default was opened on her application, and the case came to trial. At this trial Fisk defaulted und put in no appearance, and judgment was entered for the wife and the marriage stood. Now comes Fisk with the same story as formerly told by his wife, and wants his default opened. He says that he had no notice of the trial, and did not know that it was going on. Judge Gildersleeve reserved decision.

Annie Roberts brought an action in the Common Pleas Court before Judge Bookstaver yeaterday for a divorce from Wilbur F. Roberts, She was married on Sept. 9, 1891, and she said that her husband had never contributed to her support. She left him in July, 1893, she said, after she had learned of his unfaithfulness.

William Nolan, who said he was a porter in a furnishing house at Seventy-eight Third avenue during 1892, swore that the defendant had visited a woman named Dollle Grant theer. Judge Bookstaver said he would grant the decree.

Herbert Harding Held for Trial and His

Herbert Harding and his cousin, Clarence Warbeck, who are accused of robbing the United States Express Company, were arraigned before Police Justice Potts in the Gregory Street Police Court in Jersey City yesterday morning. Examination was waived and Harding was committed for trial. Warbeck is held as a witness. William S. Harding, the alleged receiver of the stolen goods, who is under arrest in Binghamton, is a cousin of Herbert Harding. The express company's detectives are working on the case, and some important developments are expected. The officials of the company will not state what the loss is. Chief Murphy, who probably got his information from official sources, says it is about $10,000.

The officials have partly decided to bring William S. Harding from Binghamton and have him tried in Hudson county, where, it is said, he disposed of some of the stolen property. The police authorities think it would be better to have him indicated and tried in Binghamton for receiving studen goods. There is a suspicion that the conspiracy was more widespread than has been reported, and that the facts are being suppressed until all the persons engaged in it have been taken into custody. stolen goods, who is under arrest in Bingham-
